ALLEGED VIOLATIONS

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation No. Nature of Noncompliance

1. Shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime:

Joedon Bradley was arrested for Driving on a Suspended Driver's License by the Metropolitan Nashville Police Department (MNPd), Nashville, Tennessee, on April 9, 2014. According to the affidavit, officers with MNPd observed the offender get onto a motorcycle and begin to drive near 1601 Herman Street, Nashville, Tennessee. Officers had numerous contacts with Mr. Bradley and had personal knowledge that his driver's license was suspended. Officers ran his information through state records, and it was confirmed that his license was suspended on March 24, 2014, and a suspension notice was sent. Mr. Bradley is to appear in the Davidson County General Sessions Court, Nashville, Tennessee, on April 29, 2014, Warrant No. GS673019.

On April 10, 2014, Mr. Bradley contacted this officer to advise of his arrest. The offender indicated that he had been to the Department of Motor Vehicles earlier that day, and they advised him his driver's license was valid. Mr. Bradley stated that they provided him with paperwork, and he was directed to provide it to this officer.

Compliance with Supervision Conditions and Prior Interventions:

Joedon Bradley is a resident of Davidson County, Tennessee, and has been under the federal supervision of the U.S. Probation Office since January 2, 2013. He was to begin new employment with a local construction company on April 14, 2014. He lives with his Godmother in Nashville, Tennessee. The probation officer completes frequent unannounced home visits at the offender's residence.

U.S. Probation Officer Recommendation:

The probation officer respectfully recommends the offender be continued on supervised release and that the new violations be handled in Davidson County General Sessions Court. The state court will likely impose an appropriate sentence should Mr. Bradley be adjudicated guilty of the charges.

The U. S. Attorney's Office has been advised of the offender's noncompliance.
